THE PAPERS OF REVEREND WILLIAM AUGUSTUS JONES JR.

Reverend William Augustus Jones Jr. (1934-2006) was a Baptist preacher, activist, author, professor, and pastor of Brooklyn' s Bethany Baptist Church. His inspirational sermons were heard in Brooklyn and around the world, and he served as national president of Operation Breadbasket, the economic arm of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference founded by Martin Luther King, Jr. Come explore his legacy through his amazing archival collection, which features a letter from then-President Bill Clinton congratulating Reverend Jones "on forty years of dedicated leadership," as well as materials on the boycott he led on the Atlantic and Pacific supermarket chain, his handwritten sermons, and so much more.

THE USS BROOKLYN COLLECTION

In 1951, the 303-pound bronze bell that once adorned the USS Brooklyn during World War II found a permanent home at Brooklyn College. Due to efforts by the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity at Brooklyn College, the bell was returned to the borough for which it was named, and has had a home at Brooklyn College since then. Join Brooklyn Navy Yard archivist Daniella Romano for a lecture on the USS Brooklyn, and learn about the archival process related to working at such a historical location.
